

Join Us for Next Year's Conference!

Exploring New Worlds in Gifted Education

April 22-24, 2010

Four Points by Sheraton North -- Mars, PA

Highlights:

Best Practices for Meeting the Needs of All Gifted Learners (full-day session)

Presented by Dr. Mary (Landrum) Slade, James Madison University

Developing Mathematical Talent (half-day session)

Presented by Dr. Ann Lupkowski Shoplik, C-MITES, Carnegie Mellon University

An Update on the Latest Research in Gifted Education (keynote address)

Do Australians Do It Better? An Outsider's Perspective of Education "Down Under"

Teachers Who Make a Difference in Gifted Children's Lives

Presented by Dr. Karen Rogers, The University of St. Thomas

Social and Emotional Concerns: Essential for Advocacy (keynote address)

Bullying of and by Gifted Students: What We Should Be Concerned About

A Counselor Looks at Parenting Gifted Kids

Presented by Dr. Jean Peterson, Purdue University

Workshops --- Panels --- Exhibitors and Vendors --- Networking Opportunities

www.penngifted.org

PAGEgoes2Mars@gmail.com